What does Qadr mean?

The term Qadr implies ability or power which exists in the knowledge of Allah, (Fath-al-baari). Different forms of the word Qadr are among Allahs names and attributes :

Al-Qaadir – The able

Al-Qadeer – The All Powerful

Al-Muqtadir – The omnipotent, able to do all things

Qudrah – capability

What is Qadr?

Ibn Abbas said, “Qadr is the essence of tawheed”. Whoever worships Allah alone and believes in qadr has perfected his tawheed, but whoever worships Allah alone but does not believe in qadr destroys his tawheed by his disbelief. (Majmoo’ al-Fataawa Shaykh al-Islam).

Even if something did not happen, Allah knows what would have happened had it occurred. Allah loves His servants and wants us to draw closer to Him.

What is Qadr?

Ibn Hajaar said in his definition of qadr, “What is meant is that Allah knows how things will be and when they will happen, before He starts them. Then He creates that which He already knows will happen. Hence everything that happens is from His knowledge, power and will.

How does a Muslim believe in Qadr?

For us to understand qadr, firstly we need to understand these four pillars:

1. The knowledge of Allah is all-encompassing
2. Allah has written in Al-Lauh al-Mahfooz (the preserved tablet) everything that will happen until the Day of Ressuruction.
3. Nothing can happen except Allah wills for it to happen.
4. Allah has created everything that exists and Allah has no partner in His creation.

Teacher Analogy

The teacher analogy shows us that the teacher has a prediction on each individual student's exam results. In the same way Allah has said in the Quran, 'Verily we have created all things with Qadar', (Al-Qamar:49). Al-Lauh al-Mahfuz was written long before Adam was created. 'Abd-Allah ibn 'Amr ibn al-'Aas said, I heard the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w) say, 'Allah wrote down the decrees of creation fifty thousand years before He created the heaven and the earth'. He said, 'And His throne was upon water'.
