

PATH OF RESPECT

Choose the path of respect,
It's not really nice to make people depressed.
They try their best, your words do effect.
It's best to understand the pain and wound you caused.
For what you did you do not deserve an applause.
Bullying is far from the path to paradise,
They hide their pain in disguise.
Who's at Fault? for the hearts you have shattered, the pieces scattered. Healing takes time, bullying is what this poem defines.
