

stand for the victim poem

by ah

Stand for the victim

Be the voice for them

Take a stand for the oppressed

The one that is depressed

You should know bullying hurts

It starts with one word, one word you blurt

“Fat, ugly , worthless “.These are the words they hear.

Did you know, you are their biggest fear

The one that makes them sniffle and tear.

In the Quran we are told,

To respect and not hold,

any grudges or budes.

“O you who believe, let not one people make fun of another people (for) they may be better than those who make fun of them. And let not women (make fun of) other women, (for) it may be that the women (being made fun of) are better than the women (making fun of).

Be kind
